"INGRATITUDE"

The No-Western has grown very angry at the "speaks of" "ingratitude." All we have to say is Sir Charles Tupper really deserves this ingratitude from that province. At the outset he made a bid to purchase that province at the cost of Manitoba and he has fallen in the chase. He knew from the start separate schools were not desired by Manitoba, also that the law of the land did not call for their imposition; and in the face of those assurances, he ought to have washed his hands of the matter. Under such a resolution he would have done better in all of the other provinces, and he could not have done worse in Quebec. Under such circumstances, his defeat could not have followed—it certainly would not have followed so signally and he would have retained a high degree of public confidence in any event.

Adverse there is now much conjecture as to the future. Tupper was assured by his colleague Angus that he would be elected a majority in Quebec, and he finds that of a majority against him, all of which goes to show that for the remaining days of his life he should be content to remain a politician, should not put too much confidence in promises—they are like oil, but frail humanity. The Globe gives Laurier 25 of a majority over all elements, which is enough to carry leaders like Bowell and Tupper through the approaching elections. If Laurier attempts a remedy, all as drastic in the province as the one proposed by Tupper, or in fact any other, embracing the principle of separate schools, we are very much mistaken if he can pull through with his majority, and, of course, there are some who will see his coadjutors will be satisfied with nothing less. To our mind this late, class are a little out in their calculations, in fact we are given to the opinion, the mass of the French people care as about separate schools than many think they do when from under the scrutiny of the priests. It is now just a question if they do not consider it of more importance that Canada should have a premier of their own nationality than that Manitoba should have separate schools. If they take this latter view of the situation Laurier will not be forced into the coercion of Manitoba. In any event as the House will have to meet in a very short time to pass estimates for the year, the attitude of the premier and the position of the new government will soon be defined.

It is manifestly unfair as is being done in some quarters, to stir up a feeling against Laurier because he is a Catholic, when many of the same parties deep in agitation were perfectly satisfied to support Sir John Thompson another Catholic, but a few months before; and who in Ontario years ago right loyally supported John Sandfield Macdonald though a Catholic because he gave the province the best government it ever had. Let us judge men on principles and measures, and not on partisanship and religious prejudices if we ever desire to reach the highest grade of true citizenship.

WHAT WILL HE DO?

We would much rather Mr. Laurier did not promise, under present conditions, to appoint the Hon. O. Mowat as a commissioner to look into the alleged grievances of the Roman Catholics of Manitoba, under the present law, not because he is not a sufficiently capable man but because of his statements on the platform during the late campaign. There is no doubt that in looking into the situation of affairs here, Mr. Laurier would be well within the meaning of the constitution; but as the Hon. O. Mowat said some weeks ago the B.N.A. Act guaranteed separate schools in Manitoba, he is hardly the man to sit on a commission of investigation as he has the case prejudged already.

As a matter of fact the constitution does not guarantee separate schools in Manitoba for if it did the Privy Council would have had to declare in their first decision the Manitoba Act of 1870 was beyond the power of the Legislature.

The facts are simply that in the present case Laurier has the POWER TO GRANT some measure of relief if he thinks PROPER TO DO SO, and that is all there is of it. As the matter is altogether discretionary, we feel convinced the House just elected will stand no interference. Laurier has but 22 of a majority over the independents, so that if of a defection from his ranks on that question would defeat him in the House, and we are confident he would lose more than that number of his following, if he attempted interference. It is not at all unlikely he will advise Greenway to pass an act in terms of the offer the Manitoba government made the Ottawa commissioners last spring, and that he will advise the Catholics to accept it. If this makes it will be a happy solution of the vexed question. As we said at the outset, however, it is better to wait developments than to pass a hasty and indiscreet judgment.

PARTY RESULTS.

Virtue, even in politics, is not always without its rewards. In North Bruce McNeil, who five years ago had but 31 of a majority, and was this time opposed by a Liberal and a Conservative Patron, succeeded in securing his election. His services to Manitoba in her struggle were appreciated even by the people of his constituency. He was read out of his party by Tupper but read back again by his constituents. D'Alton McCarthy too had it all his own way in his old constituency, in which he was beaten in his first two contests by H. H. Cook. As he is known, he is however better appreciated. He polled 2,318 votes while his Liberal opponent Stewart could at the close count but 1,365, and his Conservative opponent L. H. 994, leaving his deposit. Had his opponent a few less votes he would have lost his deposit. McCarthy had 187 a big enough majority over the combined votes of both opponents. This does not look as if he was badly rejected, though he was a concession into the ranks of either of the old parties.

But it is in West York the brightest point of all is presented. Sir Charles Tupper read Clark Wallace out of the party, in that constituency and gave Platt a letter endorsing his candidature there. At the close of the poll the vote however stood Wallace 5,615, Brown Liberal 879, Platt Tupperite 748. Of course Tupper is now proud of the vote polled by his man. Had Daly only withdrawn from the Cabinet when Wallace did and come back for re-election as Wallace did in York, he would have swept the field as Wallace did and held his party together. It was revenue ahead, however, and he had to remain a Conservative while it was there. The Mail always contended Mr. Daly would ruin the Conservative party in the west, and it remains now for the public to say whether our contention was right or wrong. There is no use in trying to hold men together unless the leaders take up their cause; the men who consider the exigencies of party in preference to the needs of the people will always come to grief. First see what the people want, and make for that as far as possible. This is the safest course for the politician.

KEEP ORGANIZED.

It appears to us there never was a time in which the independent electors of Canada and more particularly those of Manitoba and the North West were on the alert and ready for any emergency. In a word the delegation of independent Conservatives who brought out D'Alton McCarthy and elected him should keep up their organization, enlisting recruits from every quarter, and be ready for any immediate attack. As far as we can understand at present Mr. McCarthy is likely to retain this seat for the present, but this alone is not sufficient to rest complacently on.

No one can believe in the face of their declarations that the Greenway government will grant separate schools to the Catholics of Manitoba; and as Laurier has carried 50 out of the 65 divisions of the province of Quebec and holds his majority almost entirely from that province, it is reasonable to infer no matter what may be his own personal desires, he will be forced to yield to the demand, of his following. In short some of the newspapers that supported him in the late campaign are already commencing to hedge and to hint that remedial legislation is not so far out after all. From the time the Bowell government hinted at meddling, the MAIL has been a consistent opponent of interference with our schools from Ottawa, and we intend to oppose to the bitter end remedial legislation from that quarter, no matter from whom or of what character. We opposed Tupper because he declared himself in favor of a Remedial Bill and we endorsed Mr. McCarthy because we believed of all men we could depend on his contending it against all comers.

If Laurier takes it up as the indications are he will be compelled to, there will be trouble in the House and what may be the result it will be hard to predict. Under the circumstances all we have to say is it is the duty of all opponents of a double school system, to calmly wait results, and have their powder dry and available if called upon to use it.

As there are at least 8,000 Roman Catholic votes in the province that went solid for the Tupper candidates, it is fair to assume that the Protestant vote went an even 10,000 against the coercion of this province. In a speech at Montreal since the elections Laurier is reported to have said, through the sense of justice of the Manitoba government we will succeed in restoring to the minority the rights of which they have been deprived. If he expects the people of this province to consent to any further concessions, than those proposed by the Manitoba commissioners last spring, he will reckon without his host. No government can hope to pull through a general election in this province and concede more.

THE MAIL ALARMED.

Toronto, June 26.—The Mail and Empire says editorially: "We are going to get from this abolition of the general election, a distinctly Quebec government of the Mercier type at Ottawa. Like conditions produce like results. It is idle to suppose that Ontario Liberals can protect us. The men who work a lot to elect Mercier are experts in the business. They can clean out the treasury while Sir Oliver is sleeping in the senate. With a repetition of the Mercier regime at the Federal capital, it is necessary we should all be fully alive to every move on the chess board, and thoroughly united for defence of our interests. The Mail and Empire for its part, recognizes, as all Ontario must, the seriousness of the situation, and is determined, not in a spirit of partisanship, but rather patriotism and independence, to guard the interests of the English-speaking population in this danger."

Is it not late in the day for the chief Tory organ to howl this way now. All along when Tupper was endeavoring to buy up the whole of Quebec with his "Remedial Bill," there was no talk of "guarding the English speaking population," and had the game succeeded, there would not be a word of complaint now. There is no doubt the government of Canada has been, and will be in the future, run too much on the healing principle for the welfare of the people. It is anything to get there, and the defeated party never takes kindly to the tricks of the successful competitors.

The Portage Liberal, Joe Martin's pocket organ says there will be wig on the green if Martin is not made Minister of the Interior in the new cabinet. Does Laurier want to bring down Martin's gun?

It is morally certain Sir Charles Tupper did not say some years ago he "had no confidence in the breed," but it is none the less a fact he is ready to say it now.

LUNGS CLOSED UP.

Gentle.—In the early part of the winter I caught a bad cold, followed by a severe cough. I could not sleep as my lungs seemed closed up. I could walk only a few yards without stopping to get breath. I used for your Emulsion and before I had finished the third bottle the cough was gone—I could breathe freely and felt like a new man. I advise all sufferers from coughs, colds or asthma, to give your Emulsion a trial.

He says every head of a family in this lot had at least $1,500 capital with him, which ought to make the lot very desirable settlers. Mr. Wood has done some very excellent work having located many in this country with ample means to go on and prosper.

Later returns coming in appear to be increasing the Conservative strength and diminishing Laurier's forces. The latest reports elect McGillivray in North Ontario; Powell in Westmoreland, N.B.; McNeil in North Bruce, and the Tory in North Middlesex. Laurier has no majority of 15 over Conservatives and Independents combined, or probably 18 when the Independents and Patrons are properly located. If he can manage to elect a strong cabinet and sails clear of breakers in the school muddle his majority will increase as time goes on, but if he encounters any difficulty in the school question, he is wrecked sure and certain.

Perry Sound, June 17.—A most brutal murder was committed at Segui Falls, twenty-five miles from here, on day or two ago. Two men, having the appearance of tramps, reached Segui Falls Friday last, and were taken to a house for a night's lodging, but were refused, and were seen no more; but on Monday the dead body of one of them was found sloshed under a barn. The body was badly battered and it is a club. The other man was not found at once, but a report comes now from a village near Segui that he has been captured and charged with the murder.

Provincial and Territorial.

There was a severe thunder storm on Sunday morning last, which caused some damage in this district. The electric fluid entered Mr. E. P. Fraser's new barn in Clanswilliam, killing two horses, a bull and one cow. The hired man was in the barn at the time but received no injury. Mr. Geo. Fraser who was outside near one of the doors had his arm scorched and benumbed. The lightning tore some of the boards off the barn, ripped up the shingles, splintered several posts and set fire to a pile of hay which had been unloaded in the barn the previous day. Mr. Fraser discovered the fire at once and managed by throwing it with a pole over it to extinguish it. The barn is a new one only finished the day before.

At Portage la Prairie last week John Hazleton was paid $120 and costs to selling liquor without a license.

Every farmer should have a copy of the 185 report of Mr. S. A. Beddell's operations at the Dominion Experimental Farm at Brandon. It will be sent free on writing to Mr. Bedford for it.
